

CLUBS

JUNIOR RED CROSS

On Tuesday, January 29, 31 students from Taito Commercial High School in Asakusa visited N.H.S. Four adults from the Japanese Red Cross accompanied them.

Each member of the Junior Red Cross took two guests with him to all his classes. Box lunches were furnished by club funds.

After school the students were asked to sit in on a Student Council meeting. Due to transportation difficulties they were not able to see the basketball game scheduled that afternoon.

Block Club

There was a Block Club meeting, Thursday, the thirty-first of January. It was called for the benefit of the football players. All those who participated in football last fall got a look at their football pictures, both individual and group pictures. Any football player who wants copies of these pictures should contact the photographer at the Grant Heights Photo Shop.

The Block Club has no immediate future plans.

Funny But Fun

Marian Eppley and her sister's boyfriend, Don Hoffman, had a pretty rough and tough battle on Monday—with what? Snow of course!!

Carol Stephens, what is this we heard about you going to church in Tokyo and in less than two and one half hours your car had four flat tires? By the way, whom did you say you were with???

Mrs. Curtis visited the music room to see how many curtains are needed to dress the windows up. Miss Johnson's comment on the subject was "We're getting curtains!"

Rhythm rocked the Stevens' pad last Saturday night plus a broken window as the result of a snowball fight. Hmm, Jim?

There is one thing which is very noticeable at school this week—the increase in blonds and the decrease in brunettes. Can you think of an answer?

Hey Cathy, I heard your boyfriend got on the wrong bus the other day and it took him four hours to get to your house. Jim's party at Wash. Hgts. was a big success; it would have been better if some one hadn't taken something from Larry's saddle bags...

The additional rooms just built on the Tachi Club should keep the chaperones running back and forth... It looks like ? and Vice are having a sideburn growing contest; both are cycle tramps.....

Students who drive vehicles to school have been requested to leave them home.... how's that for democracy...

KAYE ZIMMERMAN WRITES LETTER FROM SCOUT CAMP IN PHILIPPINES

"Hi!

Well this is my third day in camp and I'm enjoying myself thoroughly!

I'm living in a native nipa hut along with six other girls: five Filipinos and one girl from Singapore. The camp is divided into five regions, Central Luzon (that's where I am), Southern Luzon, Northern Luzon, Mindanao, and Visayas. Each region is divided into four units and each unit is divided into patrols. The patrol I am in is named "Kayumian" meaning "modesty."

The people here are wonderful. They're so hospitable and nice. I wouldn't mind staying after the encampment is over.

Before the camp started I stayed in the home of a very, very nice Philippine family. They were wonderful to me and the other two girls staying in their home. We were escorted all around Manila and its suburbs. Manila is a beautiful city but considered dusty and dirty by its inhabitants. They should see Tokyo! Compared to Tokyo, Manila is fresh, green, immaculate, and not the least bit dusty.

Here in camp, reveille is at 6:00 a.m., and taps is at 10:00 p.m. I haven't figured out why, yet, but I am so tired by the time 10:00 p.m. comes around. In fact, I missed campfire at 7:30 p.m. the other night because I was sound asleep.

I'm beginning to think that I am a celebrity. I have given my name and address to more people than I can count and most of them are strangers. I also have been photographed so much that I feel like a highly demanded photographer's model. And—hold onto your hat—I was photographed for a newsreel.

I'll tell you more when I return.

Sincerely,
Kaye

"Lips that touch wine shall never touch mine," said Suzie.

And after she graduated, she taught school for years and years and years and years.

Class News

SENIOR

Gary Hampsch, a member of the senior class of Narimasu High, has just received the highest honor given in the Boy Scouts of America. Gary received his Eagle Scout award at Fuchu Air Station Theater on Friday, February 8, at 7:25 p.m. He is a resident of Johnson Air Force Base, where he lives with his parents, M/Sgt. and Mrs. Lester E. Hampsch.

The Dragon's Roar staff wishes to congratulate him on his good work.

Don't forget your class dues (of $2:00) should be paid by 3:30 today. Give the money to Geri Bogle.

SOPHOMORE

The sophomore class, still has the same officers, and will keep them at least until they have had their party. You will hear more about the party in the next issue of the Dragon's Roar.

For the benefit of the new comers, the class officers are as follows: President, Terry Yamauchi; Vice-President, Roger Hoffman; Secretary, Virginia Wiessinger; and Treasurer, Jennifer Harris.

Mrs. Flemmings' sophomore class (as well as all students) is getting ready for the big essay contest. For this semester, they started studying essays. The Dragon's Roar wishes everybody the best of luck on the essay contest, and may the best man win.

ART DEPARTMENT

In the art department, Mr. Browne's classes have just finished cutting down the trees, after having converted half of the room into the "Forest of Arden," for Shakespeare's play, "As You Like It." The whole class had to recite the renowned "Seven Ages Of Man," from Jaques speech; "All The World's A Stage."

By the way, the seven ages are:

1. Infant
2. School-boy
3. Lover
4. Soldier
5. Justice
6. Pantaloon, and
7. Second Childishness

This six weeks, Mr. Browne's art classes will be copying masterpieces.
